CAREER SUMMARY

A creative, instinctive and versatile Casting Director with a track record of numerous successes and award-winning productions that have gained an Oscar, BAFTAs, Palme D'Or and Evening Standard Best Newcomer (theatre) Award. I cast for films, TV and theatre with passion, ambition and imagination, and have worked with a host of leading and admirable directors and producers on a significant range of noteworthy and sometimes ground breaking productions. I am delighted also to have had the opportunity of working with the late Mary Selway on a good number of projects. I remain grateful to Stephen Daldry for the training I got under his directorship at the Royal Court Theatre and for believing in me when I was starting out in my career.
